

Tuesday 24th March

Good Morning Bodrifty!

Thank you to everyone that logged on and completed the work. don't forget that you can also go on Reflex, Spelling shed and Read Theory. I will be doing a live quiz each day at 2.30 so watch out for the game code. If you can't log in to quizziz, let me know.

English- On Showbie

All the work this week will be based on a lovely short Pixar film called For The Birds - you may have already seen it. Each day there will be one piece of work set on it.

The link for the film is here and I will also put it into your English Showbie group.

Watch the film The Birds

What do you think this film is about?

Today, we'd like you to focus on the dialogue, what the birds are saying to each other.

Your task:

Practise writing speech in character as some of the birds. Think about the rules of speech. How will you show what is being said and who is saying it? How will they say it?

Maybe after you have written a conversation in role, you could turn the scene into a comic strip? How would you use speech in a comic strip?

Maths - On Showbie - This is for my maths group -

Showbie password for Mr Hammond's group - F65AM

Do it Now - the answers will be there for you to mark yours. Let me know how you got on and if you want me to go over something.

Column Subtraction - you can watch the video if you want and then complete the questions in your doodle book.

Science - LIGHT - QUIZZIZ QUIZ WILL BE LIVE AT 2.30 PM!

You will find a ppt to look at on Showbie..

This task follows on from one we started in class.

We want you to have a go at making a simple shadow puppet - you can use card from a cereal box to cut out the shape and stick it to a pencil. Use a torch or phone torch to try and create the shadow. Send me a picture on Showbie if you can!
