Friday 27th March 2020.

Dear Kingfishers and Kingfisher parents,

Officially it's the last day of term and we've completed a week of home learning together. Well done! We did it!

Over the holidays, I will continue to post suggestions for activities you might enjoy to do together. It won't be 'school' but since we are all largely confined to barracks I thought some ideas might be useful? We will recommence with 'Home Learning' after the holidays.

A challenge! Zachary has started a story with a super-hero called Woodlouse Boy and his arch enemy - a Teacher villain (Mr Dawe!) whose evil alter-ego is Spider Boy. (See the photos below!) He would like some classmates to write a new chapter. What dastardly plan might Spider Boy have and how will Woodlouse Boy foil him??? Can you help Zachary?!

Best wishes to you all and happy holidays!

Mr Dawe
