The Woodland Nursery

Well, Christmas has begun in earnest at The Woodland Nursery. Monday saw the arrival of the Christmas tree and all the decorations. The children got stuck in decorating with style-Mrs Roberts has only just recovered...

We have been decorating biscuits to sell at the Christmas fair, making Christmas decorations for home and of course practicing our own version of The nativity which will be held in the school hall on Monday morning-hopefully the children will perform as splendidly as they have been doing all week for you. The children have had lots of opportunities to follow their own interests this week and beautiful weather too for a change. We have been out in the woods, in the garden at the back and in the yard too. The children have been enjoying lots of water play, exploring the ice and the frost and helping to make a Christmas themed role-play area in one of the garden houses. We have been sharing lots of stories, playing with the small world Nativity and learning a little bit about what Christmas is all about.

Special notices

On Monday, please drop your children off at the normal time already dressed in their Nativity costume of choice.

Please make your way to the school Hall through the schools reception area and make yourselves comfortable-there will be tea, coffee and biscuits available for you. We are hoping to be ready to entertain you between 9.15-9.30am

Children who do not usually attend on a Monday can be taken home directly from the performance. Many thanks

Lovely dry leaves, for a change, in the woods. We had a lot of fun throwing them up in the air and watching them float back down
