

TEACHERS STRIKE - Partial closure of school

Strike action is planned for Tuesday 5th July by the NUT. The only classes that will be open that day will be Ducklings Nursery, Owls, Trencrom, Bodrifty and Kenidjack. Please ensure that if your child's class is open that they come to school even if their siblings are not. If they are absent, it will be marked as unauthorised.

Please note that there will be NO Judo club on Tuesday for those children in school (the last one will now be on 12th July)

Bodrifty Farmers Market

This morning Bodrifty class ran a highly successful Farmers' market stall at St John's Hall. It was an incredibly positive morning for the children who were welcomed by all of the stallholders and received lots of amazing feedback about their salads from parents and the general public. Mrs O'Rourke and Miss Bowen are very proud of the children's achievements. £120 profit was raised towards our next REAL project. Watch this space!

Penzance Litfest Spotlight Sarah Turner: The Unmumsy Mum

THIS IS NOT A PARENTING MANUAL. THIS IS REAL LIFE.

In her hugely popular blog, Facebook page and now her book, Sarah writes candidly – and hilariously – about motherhood as it really is: the messy, maddening, reality, how there is no 'one size fits all' approach and how it is sometimes absolutely fine to not know what you are doing.

Mums (and dads) of Cornwall, come and listen to Sarah's honest and hilarious experiences of the highs and lows of motherhood and parenting.

Saturday July 9th, 4–5.30pm, The Acorn Penzance
Tickets £4: book at pzlitfest.co.uk/ac44
