Complaints Policy

1 STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

- 1.1 Each school in the Truro and Penwith Academy Trust welcomes feedback, both positive and negative, about how it is doing. Where someone has a concern or complaint each school will endeavour at all times to deal with the issues responsively and reasonably and if necessary put things right as quickly as possible.
- 1.2 When responding to complaints, we aim to:-
- 1.2.1 be impartial and non-adversarial;
 - 1.2.2 facilitate a full and fair investigation by an independent person or panel, where necessary;
 - 1.2.3 address all the points at issue and provide an effective and prompt response;
 - 1.2.4 respect complainants' desire for confidentiality;
 - 1.2.5 treat complainants with respect;
 - 1.2.6 keep complainants informed of the progress of the complaints process; and
 - 1.2.7 consider how the complaint can feed into school improvement evaluation processes.
- 1.3 We try to resolve concerns or complaints by informal means wherever possible. Where this is not possible, formal procedures will be followed. The school will aim to give the complainant the opportunity to complete the complaints procedure in full.
- To support this, we will ensure we publicise the existence of this policy and make it available on the school website.
- 1.4 Complaints will be treated confidentially with written records being securely retained. A written record will be kept of all complaints made, together with details of whether they were resolved following the formal procedure or progressed to a panel hearing.
- 1.5 The school will record all the action it takes as a result of the complaints, regardless of whether they are upheld.
- 1.6 All correspondence, statements and records relating to individual complaints will be kept confidential, except where the Secretary of State or a body conducting an inspection under section 109 of the 2008 Act requests access to them

2 AREAS EXCLUDED FROM THIS PROCEDURE

- 2.1 Complaints relating to areas which are covered by other statutory procedures are excluded from this policy. These include exclusions, staff grievances, admissions and whistleblowing – please see the Trust and/or School website for the relevant policies.

3 SUMMARY OF THE COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

INFORMAL PROCEDURE STAGE		ACTION REQUIRED
Stage 1a	Informal discussion with the class teacher or other relevant member of staff usually resulting in resolution of the issue.	The person is informed of the action to be taken to resolve the issue. If they are not satisfied they should be provided with a copy of the Trust's Complaints Policy, information of how to proceed to stage 2 of the process and a copy of the Complainant Code of Conduct (see Annex 1). The complaint will be acknowledged within 5 school days and responded to within 15 school days.
Stage 1b	Informal discussion with the Headteacher or other member of senior staff usually resulting in resolution of the issue	If the complaint cannot be resolved informally, it will become a formal complaint.
FORMAL PROCEDURE STAGE		ACTION REQUIRED
Stage 2	The complaint is submitted, normally in writing (see Annex 2 for Complaints Form), to the Headteacher	The Headteacher acknowledges receipt within 5 school days, and an investigation into the complaint is conducted by the Headteacher. If the complaint is against the Headteacher (or a decision made by the Headteacher) the complaint is escalated to Stage 3. In the absence of extenuating circumstances, the Investigator provides a written response to the Complainant within 20 school days, including the findings of the investigation and the reasons for those findings. Information is provided on how to progress the complaint to stage 3.
Stage 3	The complaint is referred to the Local Governing Board (LGB) for investigation. The Investigator will look at whether actions were fair, reasonable and consistent. He/she is able to make recommendations to the school relating to the issue complained about.	The Chair of the LGB acknowledges receipt (usually received within 10 school days of the complainant receiving the Investigators response at Stage 2) and an investigation into the complaint is conducted by the Chair of the LGB or nominee. If the complaint is against the Headteacher the investigation is always conducted by the Chair. If the complaint is against the Chair then the Vice Chair will conduct the investigation. The complainant is given a written response of the outcome of the investigation within 10 school days and information is provided on how to progress to stage 4

Stage 4	Complainant writes to the Clerk to the LGB Complaints Review Panel (and copied to the Trust Company Secretary) requesting that the complaint is heard by the Complaints Review Panel involving at least one Trust Director not involved in the management and running of the school	Clerk arranges for the Complaints Review Panel to meet between 12 and 20 school days from receipt of letter and informs Complainant of findings within 5 school days of hearing. Information is provided on how to contact the Education Funding Agency if required.
Stage 5	Complainant writes to the Education & Skills Funding Agency, via the schools complaint form at www.gov.uk/complain-about-school	The Education & Skills Funding Agency may intervene if <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • there was an undue delay or the school did not comply with its Complaints Policy • the school/Trust is not following the terms of its funding agreement • The school/Trust has failed to comply with any other legal obligation

4 STAGE 1: DEALING WITH CONCERNS AND COMPLAINTS INFORMALLY

- 4.1 All informal concerns made to the school will be taken seriously. The vast majority of concerns and complaints can be resolved informally. There are many occasions where concerns are resolved straight away through the class teacher, subject leader, mentor, pastoral leader, senior leader, other member of staff or the Headteacher, depending on who the parent first approached, without the need to resort to a formal complaints procedure, and this is preferable for all concerned. In some instances, the complainant may also welcome the opportunity for an informal discussion with the Headteacher or other senior member of staff. If the complaint concerns the Headteacher then the informal discussion will be held with the Chair of the Local Governing Board. Where a complaint is against the chair of the Local Governing Board or any member of the governing board, it should be made in writing to the clerk to the Local Governing Board in the first instance.
- 4.2 Although this stage involves dealing with the issue informally it may prove helpful later, although not essential at this stage, for the person responding to make a basic record of the issue or complaint raised, which may include brief notes of conversations (face to face or over the telephone), and the responses made.
- 4.3 The Complainant should raise the complaint as soon as possible with the relevant member of staff either in person or by letter or email.
- 4.4 The person who the Complainant reports the complaint to will acknowledge the complaint within 5 schools days. An investigation shall be carried out and a response will be given within 15 school days from the date of the acknowledgement. The Complainant should be informed of any action to be taken to resolve the issue or if the complaint is not upheld. It may be helpful to confirm undertakings given about future action or monitoring in writing.

- 4.5 If the person is dissatisfied with the response they have been given at this stage, they should be provided with a copy of the Trust's Complaints Policy and the Trust's Complainant Code of Conduct and informed about how to take their complaint to Stage 2, by referring it to the Headteacher usually in writing (see Annex 2 – Complaints Form).
- 5 STAGE 2: DEALING WITH THE COMPLAINT FORMALLY BY WRITTEN NOTICE TO THE HEAD TEACHER OR ANOTHER SENIOR STAFF MEMBER
- 5.1 The issue is referred to the Headteacher for investigation, usually by the Complainant writing to the Headteacher (see Annex 2 – Complaints Form). This should include information about why they are complaining, and what they want to happen as a result of their complaint. Where there is:
- 5.1.1 An unresolved concern under Stage 1, or
 - 5.1.2 a complaint which needs investigation, or
 - 5.1.3 a more serious dissatisfaction with some aspect of the School's policies, procedures, management or administration.
- 5.2 The complaint should be set out in writing (using Annex 2 - Complaints Form) with full details, including dates and names, and sent with all relevant documents and full contact details for the attention of the Headteacher. The Complainant should state in the letter what they feel would resolve their complaint. Should a formal written complaint be received by another member of the School's staff, he or she will immediately pass it to the Headteacher.
- 5.3 A complaint should be submitted as soon as possible, but in any event within six weeks of the incident in question. If a complaint is submitted after this date, the Complainant will be required to explain why they were not able to submit the complaint within the stated period.
- 5.4 It is generally at this stage that it will become clear whether:
- 5.4.1 it is appropriate for the complaint to be dealt with under these procedures or whether there are statutory processes which are more appropriate. If the latter is the case, the Headteacher will need to inform the Complainant of this and the way in which the complaint will be handled;
 - 5.4.2 the Headteacher will investigate the complaint;
 - 5.4.3 the concern does constitute a complaint. If the focus of the complaint is unclear, the Investigator may ask the Complainant to clarify, in writing, why they are complaining, and what they want to happen as a result of their complaint.
- 5.5 Any complaint received under the informal process should be acknowledged within 5 school days of receipt of the complaint with, in the absence of extenuating circumstances, a written response from the Investigator within 20 school days of receipt of the complaint. The Complainant will also be informed in the initial letter from the Investigator that if the complaint is about a named member of staff the Complainant should be advised not to contact the member of staff directly for the duration of the complaint. The Local Governing Board will be informed of all formal complaints escalating to Stage 2.
- 5.6 When a complaint is considered to be vexatious, serial, repetitive or spurious the Investigator will write to the Complainant explaining why the complaint is not being taken forward and informing that they have the right to refer this decision to the Chief Executive. Examples of what the Trust considers to be vexatious, serial, repetitive or spurious complaints include where:

- 5.6.1 The Complainant has not identified any specific incidents or actions about which they wish to complain;
- 5.6.2 The Complainant's concerns are presented as conclusions rather than identifying specific incidents or actions about which they wish to complain;
- 5.6.3 The concerns that the Complainant identifies relate to historical actions and any evidence which might have enabled an objective investigation of their complaint is no longer available;
- 5.6.4 The substance of the complaint has been addressed under this procedure already;
- 5.6.5 The concerns raised do not fall within the scope of this procedure;
- 5.6.6 The Complainant does not identify any potential sources of evidence which might allow the matter to be investigated;
- 5.6.7 The complaints are obsessive, harassing, or repetitive;
- 5.6.8 The Complainant is seeking unrealistic or unreasonable outcomes;
- 5.6.9 The complaints are designed to cause disruption and annoyance;
- 5.6.10 The demands for redress lack any serious purpose or value.

(Please see Annex 3 for an example of the vexatious or spurious complaint letter)

- 5.7 Assuming that the complaint is not vexatious or spurious an investigation will be held and the Complainant should also be given the opportunity to meet with the Investigator, accompanied by a relative or friend if they so wish, to discuss their complaint. Written records of interviews with Complainants and with staff or witnesses carried out in the course of the investigation should be kept by the Investigator.
- 5.8 The letter conveying the findings of the Investigator should, in the absence of extenuating circumstances, be provided within 20 school days of the receipt of the complaint and should include the outcome of the investigation accompanied by an explanation of those findings. The Complainant should also be informed of the process for referral to Stage 3 of the Complaints Policy. Any such referral should be made within 10 school days after receipt of the Investigator's response.

6 STAGE 3: REFERRAL TO THE CHAIR OF THE LOCAL GOVERNING BOARD

- 6.1 Where the Complainant is dissatisfied with the decision of the Headteacher under Stage 2, the issue must be referred in writing to the Chair of the Local Governing Board for consideration by the Complainant. This should be done within 10 school days of receipt of the Headteacher's response.
- 6.2 The Chair of the Local Governing Board should inform the Trust of the Stage 3 complaint and will investigate the complaint, seeking advice from the TPAT Governance Officer & Clerk to the Trustees, or the TPAT Director of HR as appropriate

If the complaint is about the Headteacher the investigation is always conducted by the Chair. If the complaint is about the Chair then the investigation will be undertaken by the Vice Chair of the Local Governing Board.

- 6.3 Any complaint received under this process should be acknowledged within 5 school days of receipt of the complaint with, in the absence of extenuating circumstances, a written response from the Investigator within 20 school days of receipt of the complaint. The Complainant will also be informed in the initial letter from the Investigator that if the complaint is about a named member of staff the Complainant should be advised not to contact the member of staff directly for the duration of the complaint process.
- 6.4 In acknowledging any complaint, the Investigator may need to explain their powers in the matter in question and the extent to which it may or may not be possible to achieve the outcome desired by the Complainant. For example, a parent may be unhappy with their child's class placement. Whilst the Investigator can look at whether the decision about the class placement was made in a fair, reasonable and consistent way, they do not have the powers to change the placement. In such instances it is important that the Complainant is made aware at the outset of the scope of the investigation. However, when the Investigator is the Chair of the Local Governing Board and where it is not within the remit of the Investigator to change a decision, they may make a recommendation for the Headteacher to consider.
- 6.5 Should the complaint relate to a member of Trust level staff, the actions of the Trust's Board of Trustees or an individual Trustee, the Complainant should request a review of their complaint in writing to the Chair of the Board of Trustees, via the Company Secretary to the Trust (should the complaint be about the Chair of the Board of Trustees, an alternative Trustee should undertake the investigation). The process will follow the same principles described above.

7 STAGE 4: REFERENCE TO THE COMPLAINTS REVIEW PANEL

7.1 Overview

- 7.1.1 Complaints only rarely reach this formal level, but the Trust's Board of Directors is committed to supporting a Complaints Review Panel usually convened by the Local Governing Board). The Complaints Review Panel should normally be comprised of at least two Local Governing Board members (panel members will have no detailed previous knowledge of the case and will not include a Governor who investigated the complaint at Stage 3) and at least one member of the Trust Board of Trustees who is independent of the management and running of the school. The Chair of the Local Governing Board should not be a member of the Panel if they have been involved at the previous stage. The Panel will usually constitute three members.

7.2 Timescale and documentation

- 7.2.1 Where the Clerk to the Local Governing Board receives a complaint under these procedures, he or she will arrange for a Complaints Review Panel to meet between 12 and 20 school days from receipt of the letter and to inform the Company Secretary to the Trust immediately.
- 7.2.2 The Headteacher should also be informed immediately that a complaint has been received and consulted about the proposed date of the hearing.

- 7.2.3 On issuing notification of the date and time of the hearing, the clerk will need to advise the Complainant and the Headteacher that any written documentation they wish the Panel to consider will need to be submitted in time to be circulated to Panel members 5 days prior to the hearing. The Complainant should be advised that they may be accompanied by a relative or friend. The Headteacher (or any staff member who is the subject of the complaint) should be advised that they may be accompanied by a professional support representative such as a senior colleague from another school in the Trust.
- 7.2.4 The Complainant will be given reasonable notice of the date of the review panel, the date of which will be determined by the review panel.
- 7.2.5 Notification of the hearing will also include details of the way in which the hearing will be conducted. The hearing will be minuted and copies of all relevant correspondence and notes will be kept on file by the clerk.
- 7.2.6 The panel can:
- Dismiss the complaint in whole or in part;
 - Uphold the complaint in whole or in part;
 - Decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint;
 - Recommend changes to the Academy's systems or procedures to ensure that
 - problems of a similar nature do not recur.
- 7.2.7 The findings and recommendations of the Panel should be notified to the Complainant and, where relevant, the person complained about in writing within 5 school days of the hearing. This should include the outcome of the Panel accompanied by an explanation of those findings. The findings and recommendations of the panel will be available for inspection on the school premises by the Chair of the Local Governing Board and the Headteacher. The Complainant should also be informed of the opportunity for referral to the Education & Skills Funding Agency if they are not satisfied that the complaint has been dealt with properly according to the Trust's procedure.

7.3 Procedure at the Complaints Panel meeting

- 7.3.1 The hearing is as informal as possible. The Complainant is entitled to bring a friend or relative to accompany them at the hearing. The Headteacher (or any staff member who is the subject of the complaint) is entitled to be accompanied by a professional support representative such as a senior colleague from another school in the Trust. Witnesses are only required to attend for the part of the hearing in which they give their evidence.
- 7.3.2 It is within the power of the Panel to decide whether to allow those invited to the Complaints Review Panel meeting to attend at the same time, or be invited to present their case separately. If all attendees are invited to attend the meeting at the same time the following meeting structure may be followed¹:

- The Chair of the panel (usually the member of the Trust Board of Trustees) should open the meeting by welcoming all those present and leading the introductions. The Chair should then outline the procedure and what the Complaints Panel's powers are.
- The Clerk (or Company Secretary) should outline the order in which the parties will be able to state their case and ask questions. The clerk should also draw attention to the estimated times included in the agenda and that although timings are approximate, the expectation is that they will be adhered to. Please see Annex 4 for a sample agenda with approximate timings.
- The panel should invite the Complainant to explain their complaint.
- The Headteacher, followed by the panel, may question the Complainant.
- The Chair should invite the Headteacher to explain the school's actions, followed by the school witnesses.
- The Complainant, followed by the panel, may question the Headteacher and their witnesses.
- The Chair should invite the Headteacher to make their final statement.
- The Chair should invite the Complainant to make their final statement.
- The Chair should ask both parties to leave together so that the panel can discuss the case. The Chair should inform both parties that they will be notified of the findings and/or recommendations of the panel within 5 days.
- The Complainants Panel should make their decision. The Clerk should be able to advise on procedural issues or draw from his/her notes if needed, but should take no part in the decision.

7.3.3 If the Chair of the Panel decides not to allow the attendees to attend the meeting at the same time the following meeting structure may be followed (please see Annex 5 for a sample agenda):

- The parties attending the meeting should be invited to join the meeting and present their case in the following order: Complainant, Complainant's witness(es), Headteacher, witness(es) from/for the school.
- When each attendee joins the meeting the Chair should lead the introductions of the panel, and explain the procedure and powers of the panel.
- Each attendee should be given the opportunity to present their case and answer questions from the panel. They will then be

¹ The following meeting structure is a recommendation only. The Chair may decide to allow all attendees to be present at the same time, but not allow cross-examination thanked for their attendance and informed that they will be notified of the finding and/or recommendations of the panel within 5 days.

7.4 Conduct at meetings

- 7.4.1 In most cases, each party is helpful, polite and patient, and accepts that it takes time to resolve a dispute. However, the conduct of some participants can make investigating and resolving a complaint difficult, or they may behave in a way that is unacceptable or inappropriate.
- 7.4.2 The Trust will never tolerate aggressive or intimidating behaviour, violence or abuse towards anyone attending a Complaints Review Panel meeting. This may include behaviour or language (verbal or non-verbal) that may cause individuals to feel afraid, threatened or abused; and it may include threats, personal verbal abuse, derogatory remarks and rudeness.
- 7.4.3 It is the responsibility of the panel members to monitor the conduct of those attending a panel meeting. If a member of the panel decides that an attendee is exhibiting unacceptable behaviour, in the first instance they will be asked to desist from that behaviour. If this request is ignored they may be asked to leave the meeting.

7.5 The Role of the Clerk (or Company Secretary in exceptional cases)

- To set up the Complaints Panel and invite all relevant parties.
- To ask for any written representations and supporting documentation.
- To circulate any representations in advance of the meeting, including a report from Stage 2 of the complaints process and a written account of the complaint from the Complainant, if available.
- To take detailed minutes of the meeting as a record of the evidence considered by the Complaints Panel (these minutes should be available to all parties on request).
- To provide advice to the Complaints Panel once the other parties have left the room.
- To write to all parties after the meeting with the Complaints Panel's findings.

8 FURTHER RECOURSE

- 8.1 If the Complainant is dissatisfied with the Complaint Review Panel's handling of their complaint, further recourse to other agencies is available to them outside the scope of the Trust's own procedures. However, these agencies would be unable to take any action until the Trust's own procedures had been completed.
- 8.2 Complainants have a right of appeal to the Education & Skills Funding Agency. The Education & Skills Funding Agency will check whether the complaint has been dealt with properly by the Trust.

It will consider complaints about academies that fall into any of the following three areas:

- where there is undue delay or the school did not comply with its own complaints procedure when considering a complaint
- where the school / Trust is in breach of its funding agreement with the Secretary of State
- (where an school / Trust has failed to comply with any other legal obligation

- 8.3 The Education & Skills Funding Agency will not overturn the Trust's decision about a complaint. However, if it finds that the Trust did not deal with a complaint properly it will request the complaint is looked at again and procedures meet the requirements set out in the Regulations. If the Trust's complaints procedure does not meet the Regulations, it will ask the Trust to put this right. It may seek to enforce the decision under the terms of the funding agreement on behalf of the Secretary of State, if appropriate.

9 VEXATIOUS AND/OR REPEATED COMPLAINTS

- 9.1 There may be occasions when, despite exhausting the procedure in this Complaints Policy, the Complainant persists in making the same complaint to the School. There may also be occasions when a Complainant raises unreasonable persistent complaints or raises complaints about matters which do not affect them. In addition, there may be occasions when a complaint is made about a matter which is clearly so trivial that it would be a waste of the Academy's resources to deal with it under the formal stages of the procedure. In all of these cases, the School reserves the right to regard the complaint as vexatious and/or repeated and to refuse to investigate it under the procedure in this Complaints Policy if it appears reasonable and fair to do so, having regard to the circumstances surrounding the complaint.
- 9.2 Where the School decides that a complaint is vexatious and/or repeated and will not be investigated, the School will write to the Complainant within 5 school days of the complaint being raised to notify them of the decision.
- 9.3 If the Complainant is unhappy with the decision not to investigate a vexatious and/or repeated complaint, they may write to the Chair of the Local Governing Board to ask for the decision to be reviewed. The Chair of the Local Governing Board will be provided with all documentation relating to the current complaint and any previous complaints which were relevant to the decision, together with the letter from the School to the Complainant, and will review the decision made. The Chair of Local Governing Board will write to the Complainant with the outcome of the review within 10 school days of the date that the letter from the Complainant seeking the review was received.
- 9.4 If the Chair of Local Governing Board quashes the decision not to investigate the concern or complaint, it will be referred to the School to be dealt with under the procedure in this Complaints Policy in the usual way.
- 9.5 If the Chair of Local Governing Board upholds the decision not to investigate the concern or complaint, the Complainant may refer the concern or complaint to the Education Funding Agency using the procedure stated towards the end of this Complaints Policy.

- 9.6 In exceptional circumstances, the Chair of Local Governing Board can delegate the responsibility for the review to the Vice-Chair of Local Governing Board.

10 ANONYMOUS COMPLAINTS

- 10.1 The School will not investigate anonymous complaints under the procedure in this Complaints Policy. Anonymous complaints will be referred to the Headteacher who will decide what, if any, action should be taken.

11 SUPPORT FOR EMPLOYEES WHO HAVE BEEN THE SUBJECT OF A COMPLAINT

- 11.1 In the first instance, staff members who have been subject to a complaint should seek support from their line manager or Chair of their school's Local Governing Board. For information on the support and counselling service available to employees of the Trust please contact the Trust's HR Advisors.

12 LEARNING LESSONS

- 12.1 The Local Governing Board will review any underlying issues raised by complaints with the Headteacher where appropriate, and respecting confidentiality, to determine whether there are any improvements that the school can make to its procedures or practice to help prevent similar events in the future.

13 MONITORING ARRANGEMENTS

- 13.1 The Local Governing Board will monitor the effectiveness of the complaints procedure in ensuring that complaints are handled properly. The Local Governing Board will track the number and nature of complaints, and review underlying issues as stated in section 12.

The complaints records are logged and managed by the Headteacher.

This policy will be reviewed by Board of Trustees every two years.

Annex 1 Complainant Code of Conduct

The Headteacher and Local Governing Board are fully committed to the improvement of our school. We welcome feedback from parents/carers and other members of the school community and will always try to resolve any concerns as quickly as possible. In the first instance please discuss your complaint with your child's class teacher, if appropriate, or the Headteacher or a member of the Senior Leadership team.

If you would like to take your complaint further there is a procedure for individuals to use if they wish to make a formal complaint. Please see the school website or ask at the school office for a copy of the Truro and Penwith Academy Trust Complaints Policy.

In our experience, in most cases, Complainants are helpful, polite and patient, and they give us time to sort out whatever has happened so that everyone has been listened to and the problem is resolved. The majority of Complainants will not need to be reminded to fulfil the academies' expectations to:

- conduct themselves in accordance with the Trust's Parent and Visitor Code of Conduct Policy;
- treat all members of the school community with courtesy and respect;
- respect the needs of pupils/students and staff within the school;
- avoid the use of violence, or threats of violence, towards people or property;
- recognise the time constraints under which members of staff in academies work and allow the school a reasonable time to respond to a complaint
- follow the Trust's complaints procedure

Sometimes, however, those pursuing complaints or other issues treat staff and others in a way that is unacceptable. Whilst we recognise that some complaints may relate to serious and distressing incidents, we will not accept threatening or harassing behaviour towards any members of the school community.

Threatening or harassing behaviour may include behaviour or language (verbal, non-verbal or written) that may cause staff to feel afraid, threatened or abused; and it may include threats, personal verbal abuse, derogatory remarks and rudeness, such as behaviour which is:

- out of proportion to the nature of the complaint;
- persistent – even when the complaints procedure has been exhausted;
- personally harassing;
- unjustifiably repetitious;
- pursuing complaints in an unreasonable manner (e.g. using abusive or threatening language;
- making complaints in public or via a social networking site such as Facebook;

We will not tolerate behaviour if:

- it appears to be pursued in a way intended to cause personal distress rather than to seek a resolution;
- it appears to be deliberately targeted at one or more members of school staff or others, without good cause;
- the way in which a complaint or other issues are pursued (as opposed to the complaint itself) causes undue distress to school staff or others;
- it has a significant and disproportionate adverse effect on the school community

In cases of threatening or harassing behaviour, the school may take some or all of the following steps, as appropriate:

- inform the Complainant informally that his/her behaviour is now considered by the school to be unreasonable or unacceptable, and request a changed approach;
- inform the Complainant in writing that the school considers his/her behaviour to be threatening or harassing;
- require all future meetings with a member of staff to be conducted with a second person present. In the interests of all parties, notes of these meetings may be taken;
- inform the Complainant that, except in emergencies, the school will respond only to written communication and that these may be required to be channelled through the Clerk to the Trust;
- the school is advised to call the police if there is a case of threatening or harassing behaviour.

The Trust will not tolerate any form of physical or verbal aggression against members of the school community. If there is evidence of any such aggression the school may:

- ban the individual from entering the school site, with immediate effect;
- request an Injunction to Prevent Nuisance and Annoyance (IPNA);
- prosecute under Anti-Harassment legislation;
- call the police to remove the individual from the premises, under powers provided by the Education Act 1996.

Dear Mr/Mrs/Ms

Following receipt of your communications and careful consideration of the same, I regret that I am unable to deal with this matter under the Trust's Complaints Policy because:

(It will be appropriate to include SOME of the following statements)

- You have not identified any specific incidents or actions about which you wish to complain.
- Your concerns are presented as conclusions rather than identifying specific incidents or actions about which you wish to complain;
- The concerns that you identify relate to historical actions and any evidence which might have enabled an objective investigation of your complaint is no longer available.
- The substance of your complaint has been addressed under this procedure already.
- The concerns that you raise do not fall within the scope of this procedure.
- You have not identified any potential sources of evidence which might allow the matter to be investigated.
- Your complaint is considered to be obsessive, harassing, or repetitive.
- The outcomes you are seeking are considered to be unrealistic or unreasonable.
- Your complaints are designed to cause disruption and annoyance.
- The demands for redress lack any serious purpose or value.

If you wish my decision to be reviewed then you may take advantage of the procedure set out in the Trust's formal Complaints Policy, by referring it to the Chief Executive, Truro and Penwith Academy Trust, c/o Truro College, College Road, Truro, Cornwall TR1 3XX. Please find a copy of our Complaints Policy attached to this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Headteacher or Chair of Local Governing Board
